

Israel and the Diaspora. What a relationship! For generations, we've been together. Through thick and thin. And this year, we're celebrating 70 years of partnership. But even in the best relationships, misunderstandings can happen. A difference of opinion here. A misinterpretation there.

That's why we're heading to Tel Aviv. To talk it out and ensure that our next 70 years remain strong. Together.

You'll witness at firsthand the impact your work has had in the lives of Israelis who today are icons of Tel Aviv culture and innovation.
